*The College Board recommends that colleges use the American Council on Education (ACE) credit-granting standards, which set a cut score of 50, equivalent to a grade of C in the corresponding course, across all exams. In addition, ACE recommends credit-granting scores for Level-2 Proficiency in French Language, German Language, and Spanish Language exams. However, college score requirements for awarding credit vary. Contact your college for more information. For additional information about CLEP scores and credit recommendations, see What Your Score Means, available at clep.org/whatyourscoremeans.

If you retake the same exam within the specified wait period (refer to the CLEP website for details), your score will be canceled and test fees forfeited.
